Florence, October 4.

ON Tuesday last the Archbishop of this City had an Audience of the Infante Don Carlos, and complimented him upon his approaching Departure for Parma. In the Afternoon his Royal Highness visited the Castle of St. John Baptist, where he was saluted by a Discharge of 36 Pieces of Cannon, the whole Garrison being under Arms. His Royal Highness's Departure remaining fixed for the 6th Instant, he took this Day his Leave of the Grand Duke, and of the Electoress Dowager Palatine.

Bologna, Oct. 7. The Infante Don Carlos arrived here this Afternoon in a Post Chaise from Florence, accompanied by Prince Corsini and the Count de St. Estevan: His Royal Highness will lye this Night at the Cloister of St. Michael, and proceed To-morrow Morning for Parma.

Lintz, Oct. 7, N. S. The 1st Instant being the Anniversary of the Emperour's Birth-Day, all the Nobility and the foreign Ministers went to the Palace and complimented his Imperial Majesty thereupon. Count Gundacar Stahremberg appeared there at the Head of a Deputation of the States of Austria, whereof he is President, and made the Emperour a Speech suitable to the Occasion. His Imperial Majesty dined in publick, and in the Afternoon a fine Firework was played off. On the 2d every thing was ready for the Departure of the Court, but as the Danube was swelled in a most extraordinary Manner, and the Wind being very violent all that Day, it was judged advisable to wait till the 5th, when their Imperial Majesties embarked upon the River, and arrived the same Day at Mathausen.

Vienna, Oct. 8, N. S. Yesterday about Five in the Evening their Imperial Majesties arrived safe at the Palace of the Favorita, where they were received by their most Serene Highnesses the Archdutchesses, who made them a short Compliment upon their Return. Count Wallis, Commander in Chief in Transilvania, is expected here very shortly. It is reported that the Emperour has resolved to confer upon him the Command of the Imperial Troops in the Austrian Low-Countries, vacant by the Death of Felt-Marshal Count Zumjungen.
